Archimedean Quadrature Redux: The Two Triangle Theorem

- Three Transcendental Numbers
- An Exploration of Pick's Theorem in Space
- Revisiting James Watt's Linkage
- Extra Inning Baseball Games
ARTICLES
83  Archimedean Quadrature Redux, by Larry W. Cusick
96  Three Transcendental Numbers from the Last Non-Zero Digits of \( n^9, \ F_n, \ \text{and}\ n!, \) by Gregory P. Dresden
106 An Exploration of Pick’s Theorem in Space, by Howard Iseri
116 Revisiting James Watt’s Linkage with Implicit Functions and Modern Techniques, by Christopher J. Sangwin
127 Quasigeometric Distributions and Extra Inning Baseball Games, by Darren Glass and Philip J. Lowry

NOTES
138 A Closer Look at the Crease Length Problem, by Sean Ellermeyer
146 An Offer You Can’t Refuse, by R. Hirshon and R. De Simone
152 Lazy Student Integrals, by Gregory Galperin and Gregory Ronsse

PROBLEMS
155 Proposals 1791–1795
156 Quickies 979–980
156 Solutions 1766–1770
161 Answers 979–980

REVIEWS
162